

- For our deliveries, by sea, land, air and rail, we use forwarders with an important experience. We cooperate with them dividing their assignment upon the geographic area requested from our customers. As you certainly know, the stricts customs rules of the most part of the countries, oblige the forwarders to know exactly how to work to obtain the quickest and inexpensive result for each delivery. It is almost impossible, also for any forwarder, to know the custom rules of each company and for that reason the most part of them decided to specialize their business in some particular area.
